

Dan McGuinness and Kurt Griffey toured the world performing with the original CCR members and Rock & Roll Hall of Famers Stu Cook and Doug "Cosmo" Clifford in Creedence Clearwater Revisited for ten years. Now, the torch passed, they continue CCR's musical legacy live in concert as Revisiting Creedence.

Revisiting Creedence is a full-throttle celebration of CCR that brings audiences to their feet, dancing and belting out lyrics of their iconic hits.

Revisiting Creedence has headlined up to 20,000 person festivals, amphitheaters, performing arts centers and fairs (including the California State Fair), casino resort properties and private events. Whether a life-long fan or a newcomer to CCR's powerhouse sound, Revisiting Creedence delivers an exhilarating classic rock experience.
